SMART CONTRACT

- WHAT IS IT?

A program that automatically carries out the terms of an agreement between two parties.

- HOW DOES IT WORK?

Smart contracts are stored on a blockchain, a decentralized database that logs transactions and remains immutable. When a specified condition is fulfilled, the smart contract is executed, and the outcomes are documented on the blockchain.

- AUTOMATE AGREEMENTS:

Smart contracts can streamline the execution of agreements, such as mortgage transactions, without requiring a middleman.

- ENHANCE TRACEABILITY:

Smart contracts can enhance traceability by documenting every step of a product in the supply chain.

WHAT IS AN NFT?

NFT stands for Non-Fungible Token, which is a unique digital asset stored on a blockchain. Unlike cryptocurrencies such as Bitcoin or Ethereum, which are fungible (meaning one unit is equal to another), NFTs are one-of-a-kind and cannot be replaced or exchanged on a one-to-one basis.

- Uniqueness: Each NFT has a distinct digital signature, making it different from any other.
- Ownership & Proof of Authenticity: NFTs are recorded on a blockchain, ensuring transparent and verifiable ownership.
- Indivisibility: Unlike cryptocurrencies, NFTs cannot be divided into smaller units.
- Interoperability: NFTs can be used across different blockchain platforms, depending on compatibility.

WHAT IS MINING?

Cryptocurrency mining is a process of creating new digital “coins”. However , that is as simplicity goes. The process of recovering these coins requires solving complex puzzles, validating cryptocurrency transactions on a blockchain network and adding them to a distributed ledger to locate them.

WHAT IS FOREX?

Forex, which stands for foreign exchange, is the worldwide marketplace for currency trading. It represents the largest and most liquid financial market globally, where various participants—including banks, financial institutions, corporations, governments, and individual traders—exchange currencies at set prices. In forex trading, one currency is bought while another is simultaneously sold, with popular currency pairs like EUR/USD and GBP/JPY often being traded. Currency values fluctuate due to various factors, including economic data, interest rates, geopolitical events, and market sentiment. Operating 24 hours a day, five days a week, forex allows for continuous trading across different time zones. Its decentralized structure makes the forex market accessible to anyone with an internet connection, offering opportunities for profit through both speculation and hedging.
